

Corinne's Crossword: Rom Coms

Across

6. Duckface's face card never declined.
7. Dakota Johnson's blue dress is the most memorable part of this movie.
8. Ms. Jodie Foster's alien dad really showed up. I laughed...a lot. Is this really a rom-com? I don't know, but it's funny!
10. If your love isn't punch-drunk, then is it even really love?
12. This film made tennis trendy again. Just kidding, Maddy Posner '28 brought back tennis.
15. Domhnall Gleeson travels back in time to be a creep!
18. When Renate changes her major five million times, I feel her on a spiritual level.
20. Reese Witherspoon makes try-hards cool. Bring back chalice!

Down

1. I need what Julian Sands and Helena Bonham Carter have. We all do.
2. Gregory Peck is the love of my life.
3. What if you died and had to choose between spending forever with your horrible living husband or your horrible dead husband?
4. Cher, take all of the Oscars, please. She's a scene stealer if I've ever seen one.
5. The least realistic aspect of this movie is that Eric Stoltz gets into Iowa's MFA program with zero effort.
9. Deep down, we all crave silly little banter with Billy Crystal.
11. Lets finally make "fetch" happen.
13. This Pride and Prejudice retelling is better than the novel...sorry, not sorry.
14. Wait, no, maybe Billy Crudup is the love of my life.
16. Gregory Peck is the love of my life, Hitchcock edition.
17. This movie's basically full of Swatties if we were a boarding school in NYC. Which we already are, when you really think about it. This movie's basically full of Swatties if we were a boarding school in NYC.
19. A rom-com about best friendship, which is arguably better than traditional romance.